WIFE OF EX-PRESIDENT MAKES PITIFUL PLEA FOR HIS LIFEDOOTHAN EXECUTIVE MAY BE KILLED AND CALLED—HIS WHEREABOUTS ARE VERY UN CERTAIN TO THE PUBLICC. Orozco, Jr., says he will start another revolution

Mexico City, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Madraz, wife of the deposed president of Mexico, today made a pitiful plea for her husband's life. She was accompanied by Angello Madraz, son of Mercedes Madrazo, two sisters of the deposed president. Soldiers at guard refused admittance to Mrs. Madrazo but Huerta learning of a visit of the wife of Madraz, ordered her admitted. With suffragettes and tears streaming down her face Mrs. Madrazo threw herself at the feet of the new president. Quite unmoved Huerta whose thing has all been in garrison at the Whitehouse Hotel.
Mrs. Madrazo what she desired.

Spurned husband and you shall have nothing she cried. You may have your property our money and outwitted to return away from Mexico. Only spare my husband's life. That is all I ask.

The idea is under consideration. Mrs. Madrazo in calculation can not greater than the government nor the law. If it is deemed expedient for the public welfare a husband should be respected. He should not interfere in the affairs of the state.

Mrs. Madrazo was led from the room accompanied from the building with sister-in-law at weeping hysterically.

Mexico City, Feb. 20.—The intervention of Francisco Madero the deposed president of Mexico are under today. While a private train being made up to carry Madero and his immediate family to Veracruz for banishment.
A very sentimental development among the followers of Presidential Huerta that Madraz should be held and tried in courtroom for the murder of Conel Rivilla which occurred in the national park at the time Madraz was arrested. A speedy execution of the president as an object lesson to antagonists of the new government is demanded by these radicals.

Provisional President Huerta and Col. Felix are in full control of the state here today and in promise them that the reign of martial law will be ended by Sunday. Instruction of the pulic has been received by the force of arms where are indication that Huerta's develop into an other Porfirian. He is a stern military chief and shows preference for hard methods.

Already a band of fresh revolutionaries are band fighting is sitting on the city. General Pascual Ortiz is at Chihuahua with a thousand men and swear he will not let the new government while has been proclaimed.

Mrs. Madrazo of the deposed president of Mexico of President Huerta and made a pitiful plea for her husband's life.
"The man under consideration represents a great law or the government. I am not prepared to allow the public to your husband shall be executed. I could not interfere if I tried."

Mrs. Madrazo hysterically.

HONEST BUSINESS

Trenton N J Feb 20.—Honest

MINISTER INTERRUPTED
WHILE PRAYING IN SENATE

Indianapolis Ind Feb 20.—Housing Governor O'Neil caused a sensation in the Senate today when he stopped Rev. E. R. Henry who was making the opening prayer he said stop making a political speech. The minister had prayed for the separation of the two traffic from the state for some days when Indiana refused to sell to men the right to make other men drunk and murderers filling the prisons and benevolent institutions. Henry left the chamber immediately.

ENGLAND SUFFRA-GETTES TURN TO
INCENDIARISMMRS. PARKHURST SAYS WOMEN
BURN UP HOME OF LORD
GEORGE BUT SHE WILL NOT REVEAL NAMES

London Feb 20.—From dynamite the tactical suffragettes have turned to incendiaries. The justly infamous of the new gardens was burned on the ground early today with $1000 loss and subsequently two women were arrested while carrying bags of oil soaked paper and dynamite sacks and hammers. The women arrested who had been found destroying shrubbery on the golf links at the pavilion gave the names of Miss Helen Tanton and Joyce Locke. The latter being an old offender. They were arraigned in the Richmond police station charged with the destruction of property belonging to the state. A mysterious man offered to go their bail but bond was refused and the women were remanded until next Thursday.

Cotton was worked in paraffin were found near the ruins with cords tied to them. The cords bore the words "We shall continue burning till we get you." The loss of destruction is the only kind of the government understands.

A sensation was caused by a bullet in the chest of Currier Wake by Mrs. Emmeline Parkhurst. One of the militant women. The members of the women's social and political union had dynamited the residence of Chancellor David Lloyd George at Walton on the hill. As Mrs. Parkhurst indicated that she had engineered the outrage, she may be placed under arrest charged with conspiracy. She has sworn however to reveal the names of the women who planted the bomb in the Lloyd George residence.

Residences of other members of the cabinet have been placed under guard for fear the suffragettes may continue their dynamite campaign.

In the Richmond police station when the magistrate refused bail for the women the lucky woman screamed "I'll go on a hunger strike. All the for the cause. You can't intimidate me."

She then placed up a book and a heavy inkstand and buried them at the magistrate's head. The magistrate in an undignified manner crawled from his chair to a safe place behind his desk. When the woman was being removed she became hysterical. She struggled like an insane person shrieking and struggling. It required three men to overpower her.

ness Co. left this morning for sevpects Mr. Colston in Montgomery in ference will be held to determine the course to be taken by the railroad company.

I cannot figure out on who it is the commission rendered an adverse decision. I said Colonel Jones answers our first contention that there was no evidence on which to predicate an adverse decision and that the railroad commission was at jurisdiction. I no Federal court has not relinquished its juisdiction in the case. I have not read the opinion of the commission yet and until I do so I am unprepared to give an explanation. I would not attempt to criticize in violation of this wise body of men scrutinized the opinion.

Whether any action with the Federal court will be precipitated by the decision is an absorbing question. Original decree establishing the statutory rate was issued by Fed-

Montgomery but owing to illness Judge Jones has a ninety days leave of absence and if the Federal court should interfere, the action would be taken now by Federal Judge W. I. Graham of Birmingham who is acting Judge Jones in the middle district.

The paramount problem is whether the Louisville and Nashville railroad will comply with the order or attempt again to fight the mandate in the Federal court. Should the former course be taken there is a probability that the question of the jurisdiction of the Federal court and the railroad commission may prove the most important issue.

Colonel Jones declared that he does not anticipate the Louisville and Nashville railroad reaching any conclusion for several days but just as soon as a course is determined the public will be advised.

Washington Feb 20.—Following the recent advice from Ambassador Wilson, conforming to the subsistence of a provisional government in Mexico City under the leadership of General Huerta, Assistant Secretary of State Huntington Wilson today indicated that the United States would be glad to recognize the Mexican government if it could.

This government's policy of administration of the border will work for the good of Mexican people and for the protection of foreigners in the rapidly changing era of revolution and anarchy is not yet ended. The establishment of a provisional government will make for the betterment of the immediate situation, but our dispatches from Mexico, spotting that other rebel leaders will contest the supremacy of the new administration, which, weakened by the fighting of the past four-night and the condition of the transport, will be able to offer but little resistance.

"Any government which offers protection to foreigners and their property will be satisfactory to the United States. Any government that does not offer this protection may expect to incur the opinion of the United States. The future alone will show the stability of this administration, but the good wishes of the United States are certainly with the new government in the hope that it will protect foreigners, but recognition of the new form of republic by the United States can hardly be expected until conditions in Mexico become more settled and this administration has had a chance to show that it can manage matters in a manner satisfactory to the governments of the nations who have interests in Mexico."

The navy department today received a wireless message from Rear Admiral Nathaniel Usher on board his flagship, the Virginia, at Vera Cruz, saying that the relations between the United States sailors and the Mexicans on shore were cordial and that there was no anti-foreign feeling manifested.

WEBB ANTI-SHIP-PING BILL MAY BE VETOED BY TAFTPRESIDENT MAY DECIDE TO SIGN PROHIBITION MEASURE ON GROUND THAT IT IS UN-CONSTITUTIONAL

Washington Feb 20.—Degrading of considering the provisions of the Webb liquor bill which prohibits the shipping of intoxicants into prohibition states President Taft today declined himself to either and studied the measure. It is believed the president will veto the bill on the ground that it is unconstitutional.
This will complete the important work of the last administration.

The budget message is completed and will be sent to congress next week. The president will complete his work relative to the White House and his administration next week and expects to have everything in readiness to hand over to President Wilson by March 1 at the latest so that he can devote the last three days of his life in office to personal matters and to signing such bills as congress may pass before the end of the present session.

Tonight the president will attend a banquet given in his honor by the citizens of Washington and afterward he and Mrs. Taft will go to New York to be present at the inauguration of the American Peace and Arbitration Society Saturday night returning to Washington on Sunday.

FIGHT CARS FALL IN

FRONT ON THE COAST

LAST RAMP YESTERDAY

At 2 40 yesterday afternoon, 8 cars on an extra freight train Dothan to Montgomery fell through the Claybank trestle. Two killed about 2000. A tank car went about half way over and hung over until it was pulled up. The cause of the wreck is assigned to the breaking of an axle in two which cut the ties on the trestle causing it to give in. No one was hurt.

Considerable delay in passenger service was caused. Train No. 150 from Montgomery to Dothan was held here at 1 20 went to the wreck and transferred with train No. 58 coming back to Dothan at No. 58 while the 55 on the other side of the wreck went to Montgomery on the 151. The Bowdoin train arriving here at 8 40 p. m. was held over at the wreck and went to Montgomery this morning at 15.

Your Appearance

Speaks For Itself.

It is the duty of every one to look their very best, putting the best foot forward in not only pleasing, but it is good business.

Your income and its amount has a great deal to do with the way you can dress but not everything. Almost as much depends on how you spend your money. If you buy as the impulse strikes you it is a certainty that you will not always get full value. Your buying should be done with forethought. You can get full knowledge of when where and what to buy in a few moments time each day.

It takes no longer than that to go through the advertisements of the merchants of this city, the best of whom advertisers in THE EAGLE read these advertisements closely and constantly, each day then you can be sure of getting the best that money can buy at the lowest price for which it can be had.

Work like a man, but don't be worked to death—O. W. Holmes

All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." is not only a rule, but also a warning and a promise—Arthur W. Newcomb.

The difference between a drunk white man and a drunk negro, is the negro wants to borrow money, and the white man wants to lend it, according to a Dothan citizen who has observed such things.

The human body is kept in health by simple living, which after all is a test of fitness for success. With out health there can be no success. For gain of fame or gold will not profit a man who barter away his health. The wealth of the world some day will be judged by the health and happiness of mankind—Elmer Lee, M. D.

The truths of Nature are one eternal change, one infinite variety. There is no bush on the face of the globe exactly like another bush; there are no two trees in the forest whose boughs bend in the same way; nor two waves in the sea which could not be told one from the other, nor two waves in the sea exactly alike—Ruskin

There is an honor in business that is the true gold of it, that rock on which every man builds, that loves light, that regards kindness and fairness more highly than goods or prices for goods. It becomes more than his earnings or his hope. It speaks for him in the heart of every one. His friendships are sincere and secure. His strength is like a young tree by a river—Bishop.

Today is your day and mine, the only day we have, the day in which we play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole we may not understand, but we are here to play it, and now is our time. This we know. It is a part of action, not of wishing. It is a part of love, not cynicism. It is for us to express love in terms of human helpfulness. This we know; for we have learned from and experience that any other source of life leads to sorrow and waste—David Starr Jordan.

AN OCCUPATION.

No other occupation opens so wide a field for the profitable and agreeable combination of labor with cultivated thought, as agriculture. I know nothing so pleasant to the mind as the discovery of anything that is at once new and valuable—nothing that so lightens and sweetens toil as the hopeful pursuit of such discovery. And how vast and varied a field is agriculture for such discovery! The mind already trained to thought in the country school or higher school, can not fail to find there an exhaustless source of enjoyment. Every blade of grass is a study, and to produce two where there was but one is both a profit and a pleasure. And not grass alone, but soil, seeds and seasons—bushes, ditches and fences—drainage, hedges and hedges—reap and sow and threshing—sowing and reaping—will present or cure the mind with a new and a new world of study—Abraham Lincoln

The death of George Washington Custor Lee, eldest son of Robert L. Lee breaks another bond between the present and the past. Naturally, the ranks of the veterans are thinning more and more rapidly with each passing year. But the memory of them and of their deeds will remain. The South will never begrudge the money it spends in erecting monuments to the soldiers and to the women of the Confederacy. Many of the monuments to the soldiers are monuments to the women, too, and to the untiring efforts of the Daughters of the Confederacy to perpetuate in marble and bronze the memory of what was done by the men and women of the South in the War between the States. This work of the Daughters is deserving of some return. The request of the Savannah Chapter for aid in building a hall of records should be met—Savannah News

READERS OF NEWSPAPERS

Count up the number of people you know who can read but who never take a paper or magazine, and who never read anything—not even the Bible. You will be surprised to know how many you can think of in your community. If you offered this class of people a paper for 10 cents a year, it would be no inducement. If they took it it would be of no service to the paper, nor to any one else by the act.

The ordinary newspaper man had rather risk a subscriber who is a land renter, but a reader, than a millionaire, if he is a non-reader.

Men will pay for their newspapers who are not so prompt in paying other obligations. On the other hand, there are some who will not pay for their papers promptly but who pay all their other obligations right down. It depends entirely upon whether the man is a reading man or not.

The circulation manager of a daily paper picks up much knowledge of the readers, like the telephone girl does from the telephone users. For instance, he even learns whether or not the housewife is trusted with any small change about the house. He finds that many of them are not, and that little amounts must be paid by the official hand of the family. He also finds out who does the reading for the family, whether it is the husband or the wife.

We know of a few families in town, and we presume they can be found on every street, who would take an oath that they never saw anything so perilous of any kind in their lives, and are not even bothered by it. In fact, otherwise they are pretty good folks. They would take papers or magazines, but they care nothing for reading, and keep posted on current events by talking to people who read. That's why it took so many different kinds of people to make a world, and the older the world gets the more kinds we have.

THE FINGER BOWL

The finger bowl is half the service to the diner as it would be if it were converted into a receptacle for potato peelings, chicken bones, and that inner tube composition found in beefsteak which couldn't be chewed up with a feed chopper.

Part of the business, not half the people would know what a finger bowl was used for, but for the joke smiths, who have overworked to a hard as ever they did. One time there was an Irishman.

The things have been advertised not for the service they are to humanity, but as a convenient way to hang a joke on or a vessel to pour one into. Your natural impulse is to drink the water when the waiter brings it in and leans lovingly over you for a tip. Then the latest work on table etiquette would have you believe that you should not use your fingers enough while eating to get them sufficiently greasy to need soaking into a bowl of water. Since you can't take up your drum stick and gnaw it, like you did when you used to have to wait, then of what use is the finger bowl, except to make you think the meal is worth $1.00 when you know you could have bought it at a ham and—join for 35 cents?

If we were writing a late work on table manners and convenient ways of putting away food, we should have the finger bowl brought in directly by the waiter, placed right by the plate, the first thing, and no one would have to watch his neighbor then to see how the thing was to be used. All would know what to do with bits of bones and rattle that outmatch the molars. All would know what to do with the molars found in any ordinary meal, which you have to drop on the floor or slip over in the next plate while no one is watching.

The hotels and cafes never learn anything new, that is of real service to the public. They pick up some fool notions and dislodge from third class French cooks or waiters graduated from the cotton patch or the other class who worked their passage over and who didn't learn anything about the waiting business except how to keep the customer waiting.

If we ran a high class eating establishment we'd start off by branding the ordinary French hotel 'Dump your garbage here.' It would save time for the waiters and worry to the customer.

Migratory Birds

There is an effort being made to have Congress protect the migratory birds. These birds are almost becoming extinct and it is claimed that they perform a useful purpose entirely too useful to allow them to be killed off the face of the earth. What a difference there has come about in people's ideas about things. Time was when the farmers considered birds natural and my now farmers and others are beginning to find a use for these same feathered friends. Alabama has a good law about birds and if there is national law of equal strength it might help some—Tuscaloosa Times Gazette

A vacancy having occurred in said postoffice the postmaster of the deceased postmaster, have appointed Mr. Wilson to fill out the unexpired part of the term. Dear Friend & Customer

In the past we have tried to make garments and service so satisfactory to you, that you would call again. We trust that you will call soon, and place your order for your SPRING CLOTHES so that we may have them ready for you by Easter.

Many of our old customers are now placing their orders, and indications are that there will be the usual RUSH to have orders completed in time for East-er Sunday, March the 23rd.

The large number of repeat orders placed with us, indicate satisfied customers. We know that it is not so much what we claim, but what we actually do, that wins us permanent customers. If you live out of town, drop us a card, we have your measure.

Frustrating to have the pleasure of seeing you soon, we are,

Yours very truly,

THE MUSIC OF THE HOUR

There is a change afoot, in every life, That can not be fully sung Till the Angel of Songs rules the Staff,
And the chords from the heart are wrung.

The true folk there pour forth a million strains,
With cadences, sad, yet dear, Athwart with the cry of an aching heart,
And the splash of a falling tear.

But the meads flingers, with haunt and delight,
When joy songs are dreams of the mist
And tender cherished, the chord full of pain, Prove pleasures which sorrow has banned.

—Barbara Gaere Holbe from 'In Memory's Garden'

The St. Cecilia Club held a most delightful meeting at the home of Miss Lilly Bell on South 1st, on Wednesday afternoon.
The charming young hostess was graciously assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. B. Bell. In receiving her guests in the parlors, Mrs. C. C. Bell and Mrs. W. C. Bell, presided over the punch bowl.

The combination of yellow and white in the color scheme was most effective and was used in the decorations of unfilled and jangleless shades of daffodils and golden fruit punch and on the lovely little ribbon rose distributed to the guests.

After the business of the meeting was closed, a program of concerts was given. As the club stand has been on the program, the president, Mrs. S. O.
Williams, will act as an emcee and give an interesting review of the history of the club.

Plans and programs were subject for the afternoon. The status of the club program was discussed by Mrs. Williams, who was assisted by Mrs. C. C. Bell.
The program for the coming year was discussed by Mrs. C. C.
Bell, who was assisted by Mrs.
S. O. Williams.

QUALITY WILL WIN

Don't be deceived that it is THE PRICE and not the quality that sells a high class drink. Cutting the price to the DOOTHAN would have no effect. Spending money lavishly is equally ineffective.

QUALITY DOES SELL

When you try one bottle of OLD RO COLA you'll discover its superiority. Then you doubtless will try another to be CONVIN-CED of your first opinion. And then you will continue to drink OLD RO COLA.
